WITH AUTHOR JEAN HANER

Your Inner Design Certification Training

Part 1: January 17-22, 2015

Part 2: Online Webinars - Case Studies

Part 3: Individual Mentorship

Pre-Requisites: 1. "Discover Your Inner Design" Workshop and
2. "Healing Your Life" Online Advanced training

This training is designed not only for people who wish to practice professionally with clients, but also for anyone who'd like to integrate this work into their current profession, or who's interested in applying it to their own personal growth.

This program trains you to help people re-discover their original nature, so that they can begin to make choices that will lead them into a more balanced and healthy life, physically, emotionally, spiritually. It is not psychotherapy, or medical diagnosis or treatment.

Jean Haner's work creates an affirming, empowering environment for people, with a goal of opening new possibilities in their hearts, and supporting them in taking responsibility for their own growth and transformation.

It can be used for clients who are already well on their path, or for those who are feeling stuck and desiring change. It is also appropriate for people who are experiencing crisis, in conjunction with other treatment, to help allow new insights and directions for healing.

Participants will be trained to develop and deepen their:

- Ability to read the patterns of someone's personality, core issues, and life purpose, to a very deep level
- Intuitive abilities and skill in reading people's energy
- Diagnostic skills to detect imbalances
- Methods to subtly and gently restore balance and open opportunities for deep transformation
- Ability to return lost essence to clients; helping them create a healthier life

PART I – January 17-22, 2015 - Novato, CA

(Pre-Requisites: 1. Discover Your Inner Design Workshop and
2. Healing Your Life Online Advanced training)

  - Managing your energetic boundaries during a consultation
- Getting out of the way:
  - How to navigate your own nature within the consultation setting
  - Discovering and developing your unique strengths and sensitivity

Part 2 – Online Webinars: Case Studies

In order to fully integrate the training and gain real-life experience in working with clients, you will need to do a minimum of ten case study consultations. This internship process is essential for you to “build your muscles” with this work, get your own experience, make mistakes, come up with dozens of new questions, and be personally mentored by Jean.

In each case study you do, you’ll record the audio of the session and take photos of your client. Jean will listen to the reading and view the photos so she can give you thorough feedback and guidance, to help you further develop your skills.

Jean’s reviews are done through online webinars, that are for practitioners only. Each month there will be two webinars in which Jean will review your case studies and those of other students. The practitioners who do the readings will remain anonymous. This way, it removes any worry on anyone’s part of feeling judged by the rest of the students.

And you will benefit even more by learning from others’ case study reviews as well. Everyone participating in the webinars will be able to ask questions via live chat on the webinar page. Anyone unable to attend a live webinar will be able to access it for 30 days afterwards.

Part 3 – Individual Mentorship

Part 3 of the training will take place after you have completed all your Part 2 case studies. It consists of a personalized distance learning program, where Jean mentors you to help you fine-tune your skills, further deepen your knowledge, your techniques with clients, and your own personal transformation with this work.

PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATION

(Professional certification is not guaranteed. You may be asked to complete further case studies, or schedule personal mentoring with Jean, or possibly be declined certification.)

Upon certification, you will have your own Practitioner listing on Jean’s website, and will also be able to receive referrals from our office. (There will be a reasonable annual fee to pay for the work to build and maintain your listing on the site.)

As a certified practitioner, you will be able to assist and mentor new students at workshops, the best way to further develop your understanding. Certified practitioners also qualify to eventually move into teaching this work.

To keep your professional certification active, you’re required to continue to learn and develop your skills by participating in continuing education in advanced courses. Trainings can be with Jean or with other teachers approved by her.

The Certification Training Program is by application only; admission is not guaranteed. Basic pre-requisites are:

- Read Jean’s three books, The Wisdom of Your Face; The Wisdom of Your Child’s Face; and Your Hidden Symmetry, twice.
- Completion of the “Discover Your Inner Design” workshop and the “Healing Your Life” Online Advanced training.
- You do not have to complete the pre-requisite workshops before applying for the Certification Training.

It’s highly recommended that you attend the two pre-requisite courses more than once, not only because they are so in-depth, but because you also integrate the information at a new level each time. This is a rich knowledge, with many layers, and the more exposure you have to it, the better you’ll be able to integrate it into a solid understanding.

You’re not required to commit to the full training. You may attend Part I and then decide if you intend to continue.

TUITION:

PART 1: January 17-22, 2015 - $2395

PART 2: $150 per month of webinars
